

Canyon Crest Academy: Film and Society Level of Difficulty	Estimated Homework	Prerequisites
Moderate Difficult X Very Difficult	30-60 minutes It is important to note that this serves as an estimate of the nightly average homework load. It is not intended to be a concrete value, and homework completion time will depend upon the nature of the assignment and the abilities and work habits of the student	District Open to grades 10-12 Department ⇒ Reading and writing abilities that are at grade level (minimum 10th grade level) ⇒ A strong interest in the Social Sciences or human behavior ⇒ This course frequently discusses mature content, including racial, religious, and gender stereotypes. The maturity level of the student should be considered before enrolling.

Course Description

This class will examine the relationship between society and the films that have been made. Students will learn about the different types of film genres and how movies are produced. Students will learn about historical events and Hollywood is represented them on the big screen. Students will have a deeper appreciation of how film has been an important tool to educate people on the struggles and conflicts that have occurred throughout history. Students will also have the opportunity to write about what they feel are important struggles in society and share their opinions in daily discussions.

Grading

Teachers employ variations of either the weighted or the cumulative method for determining grades. However, the following scale is used to determine the final grade:
 100% to 90% A; 89% to 80% B; 79% to 70% C; 69% to 60% D; 59% and below F

Syllabus Link

Refer to individual teacher website

Supplemental Information

10 credits

Fulfills high school graduation requirement for electives