Course Description

The successful student in this continuing course will be able to listen to and understand the gist of a short news clip in French; express opinions and carry on conversations on a variety of themes presented in class; read and comprehend a variety of texts with increasing fluency and independence; and write compositions on personal experiences as well as compositions expressing critical thinking.

This class is in alignment with national standards at the intermediate-low level.

Typical activities include conducting mock interviews and debates; reading French news articles; and reading and creating poetry in French.

Outside of class, the student will use French Internet sources to research current and cultural topics, reinforce grammatical skills and study vocabulary. In general, the successful student will spend approximately 30-45 minutes on work outside of class to prepare for the next class session.
