Course Description

The academic support classes are taught by specialists in a small instructional environment. The curriculum of the support classes focus on reinforcing core academics, organizational skills, and developing independent learning skills/academic access strategies.

Grading

The grading is based off a weekly agenda that students complete which includes the production of weekly goals, daily participation/work habits, grade check and a reflection at the end of the week. Points for each section are awarded weekly and are calculated each grading deadline as determined by school policy.
