Course Description

Peer Assistance Listeners is a peer helping program. PALS, who receive training and support from a teacher and counselor, act as guides, mentors, and mediators for other students. PALS utilize skills learned in class, including cultural competency, effective communication, decision-making, higher order thinking, and resiliency building. Through a combination of leadership and assistance, PALS offer individual and group peer support, orientation for new students, classroom presentations, and school/community outreach projects.
